

The Stem Research & Innovation, India organised the first ever National Astronomy Challenge 2020, a most prestigious Olympiad on Astronomy in India, which was held in January 2021. Many students from India and across the globe participated in this Olympiad.

The result was announced on the occasion of National Science Day, February 28, 2021.

Shashwat Singh of Class 6B, ISWK, has been awarded as the one of the top two participants securing the position of National Champions with the highest percentile in respective grades

Congratulations from ISWK Family.

Name of the participant	Shashwat Singh
School Name	Indian School Al Wadi Al Kabir
Grade	VI
Location	Muscat
Rank	1