

TOPIC: Punctuation

LANGUAGE NOTEBOOK WORK

RESOURCE PERSON: Annie Mathew

NAME: _____ CLASS: III SEC: _____ DATE: _____

Comma is a punctuation mark which is used to separate words in a list, name of the person from what is said and day from the year in the date.

I. Insert Comma wherever necessary and rewrite the sentences.

1. Please keep two cups two plates four spoons and some napkins on the table.
2. There are mangoes apples grapes and oranges in the basket.
3. Nikki Sam Rita Anu and Priya went to the park.
4. Children open your text book on page six.
5. Grandparents uncles aunts and cousins live together in a joint family.

Exclamation Mark is used to show strong emotions. It is used after exclamatory sentences and words that show feelings.

II. Rewrite the following sentences with Exclamation Marks by making necessary changes.

1. congratulations you won the prize
2. many many happy returns of the day
3. oh i missed the bus
4. what a wonderful class
5. i can't believe it you saved me