

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

Class: VI	Department : ENGLISH	Date of submission: April 2020
Worksheet No :4 Answer Key	Topic: Worksheet on Degrees of Comparison	Note: to be written in notebook

Answer Key

Exercise 1

Underline the adjectives in these sentences and also name their degree of comparison.

1. Rajasthan is hotter than Madhya Pradesh. (Comparative Degree)
2. Birbal was one of the wittiest men. (Superlative Degree)
3. Mother served the guests hot soup. (Positive Degree)
4. This pillow is the softest. (Superlative Degree)
5. Lokesh helped Anshika in lifting the heavy box. (Positive Degree)
6. Hari is a better flute player than Kokil. (Comparative Degree)
7. It was the most eloquent speech. (Superlative Degree)

Exercise 2

Write the correct form (Comparative or Superlative)

1. My doll is prettier than hers. (pretty)

2. Africa is the hottest of the five continents. (hot)
3. He is the tallest of the two brothers. (tall)
4. Clouds float in the sky because they are lighter than air. (light)
5. The Taj Mahal is the most splendid building in the world. (splendid)
6. Who is the greatest living poet? (great)
7. Prevention is better than cure.
8. The Arabian Nights is perhaps the most popular story book. (popular)
9. A wise enemy is better than a foolish friend. (good)

10. Honour is dearer to him than life. (dear)

Exercise 3

Choose the right word from within the brackets.

1. Make less noise.
2. She is junior to me in service.
3. He is weaker than any other boy in the class.
4. Australia is the largest island in the world.
5. This book is more interesting than that.
6. He had seen happier days.
7. Iron is more useful than copper.
8. Kolkata is one of the biggest cities of India.
9. Laxman is an old man.

10. Health is more preferable to wealth.