

Q1. Complete the paragraph using the articles (a, an, the). Put a cross 'x' mark if there is no article.

I'm going to travel to different places of _____ world. I saw _____ world tour offer in Himalayan Times. I have signed up for _____ tour. I plan to visit _____ Malaysia, Australia, and _____ United States of America. Oh, I can't wait to visit _____ Disney World that is in _____ USA. But I hear it's hard to _____ honest person there. This means I cannot rely on _____ stranger. I'll take with me _____ large handbag, old camera, _____ umbrella, it may rain you never know, and _____ information book for sure. _____ money won't be _____ problem as I'll be carrying plenty of money. I will also take _____ Lassie, my cute dog. He is _____ one-eyed dog, but I love him all the same. Now, I have to reach _____ airport. I'll return to _____ Nepal after a month.

Q2. Identify the demonstratives in the sentences

1. Amelia has started taking ballroom dancing lessons. This has really improved her confidence.
2. Mr. Hanson finished his book last month. That was a real landmark moment for him.
3. Yesterday, Reem decorated her house with colorful papers. Those papers were gifted by me.
4. Ben ran the race in under ten minutes. That was a new school record.
5. My sister has a dog, a cat and two horses. How does she take care of all these?

Q3. Read each sentence given below and write the suitable possessives on the line.

- _____ 1. My mother tried to warn me, but I didn't take her advice.
- _____ 2. I love your friends. They are so funny!
- _____ 3. Their grades weren't very good, but they did work hard.
- _____ 4. The girl's story was unbelievable, but their experience is true.
- _____ 5. We claimed our baggage when we got off the plane.

- _____ 6. That computer over there is mine.
- _____ 7. I trust John's judgement but not his big ideas.
- _____ 8. I put my hand on the car's hood and its engine was still warm.
- _____ 9. The message of our book is that friendship is magic.
- _____ 10. Claudia told me that Pam is her best friend.
- _____ 11. They tried to take credit, but the idea was ours.

Q4. Rewrite the sentences with the correct Quantifiers. Choose from the following:
None no Any Some

1. We don't have some milk left.
2. Any of the films I have seen recently have been entertaining.
3. I'm some expert but don't think this is right.
4. I offered any to the boys, but they declined.
5. There's hardly some mail today.
6. I don't have none idea what happened to it.

Q5. Fill in the blanks with the suitable determiners.

There once was ___ man who had ___ daughters. He had so ___ daughters, in fact, that one day, as they began to grow, he realized that he did not have enough money to feed them. They are all teenagers, he thought to himself. It will be easy to solve problem. ___ daughter will have to get ___ job. Then ___ family will be able to buy enough food to eat. When ___ man told ___ daughters that he wanted them to get jobs, they were upset.

"I hate ___ idea", said one.

"Feeding us is ___ job" pouted another.

It was time for ___ youngest daughter to speak.

"I am not afraid to get ___ job," she said. "In fact, I have ___ options.

Papa I will help you to feed ___."

___ man hugged ___ youngest daughter, thinking to himself, "You are ___ favourite."

Q6. Complete each sentence with a specific determiner (articles, possessives, demonstratives)

1. My relatives have finally shared _____ vacation plans.
2. I left _____ book on the nightstand on purpose.
3. John brought _____ friend home for _____ weekend.
4. Did you remember to bring _____ umbrella?
5. I hope _____ dresses do not belong to you.
6. One of _____ greatest pleasure is spending time with _____ dog.

ANSWERS

Q1. I'm going to travel to different places of the world. I saw a world tour offer in the Himalayan Times. I have signed up for the tour. I plan to visit x Malaysia, Australia and the United States of America. Oh, I can't wait to visit the Disney World that is in the USA. But I hear it's hard to find an honest person there. This means I cannot rely on a stranger. I'll take with me a large handbag, an old camera, an umbrella, it may rain you never know, and an information book for sure. x money won't be a problem as I'll be carrying plenty of x money. I will also take _____ Lassie, my cute dog. He is a one-eyed dog, but I love him all the same. Now, I have to reach the airport. I'll return to x Nepal after a month.

Q2. 1. This 2. That 3. Those 4. That 5. These

Q3. _____ her _____ 1. My mother tried to warn me, but I didn't take her advice.
_____ your _____ 2. I love your friends. They are so funny!
_____ their _____ 3. Their grades weren't very good, but they did work hard.
_____ their _____ 4. The girl's story was unbelievable, but their experience is true.
_____ our _____ 5. We claimed our baggage when we got off the plane.
_____ mine _____ 6. That computer over there is mine.
_____ his _____ 7. I trust John's judgement but not his big ideas.
_____ its _____ 8. I put my hand on the car's hood and its engine was still warm.
_____ our _____ 9. The message of our book is that friendship is magic.
_____ her _____ 10. Claudia told me that Pam is her best friend.
_____ ours _____ 11. They tried to take credit, but the idea was ours.

Q4. 1. We don't have any milk left.

2. None of the films I have seen recently have been entertaining.

3. I'm no expert but don't think this is right.
4. I offered some to the boys, but they declined.
5. There's hardly any mail today.
6. I don't have any idea what happened to it.

Q5. There once was a man who had many daughters. He had so many daughters, in fact, that one day, as they began to grow, he realized that he did not have enough money to feed them. They are all teenagers, he thought to himself. It will be easy to solve my problem. Each daughter will have to get our job. Then our family will be able to buy enough food to eat. When the man told his daughters that he wanted them to get jobs, they were upset.

"I hate this idea", said one.

"Feeding us is your job" pouted another.

It was time for the youngest daughter to speak.

"I am not afraid to get a job," she said. "In fact, I have several options.

Papa I will help you to feed us."

The man hugged his youngest daughter, thinking to himself, "You are my favourite."

Q6. 1. Their 2. the 3. a, the 4. an 5. these 6. the, my