

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

Class: VI	Department: ENGLISH	Date of submission: December 2020
Question bank with Answer key	Topic: King of Kings 	Note: to be written in notebook

I. Answer the following questions.

1. Why does the speaker say that God ‘lacks imagination’?

Ans: The speaker says that God lacks imagination as everywhere there is the same story of misery and sorrow. While there are people who have ample money that is impossible to spend in a lifetime; there are others who are not able to fulfill their basic needs.

2. Baba Pir Saheb is known as the King of Kings though he is poor. Why then is he called so?

Ans: Baba Pir Saheb is called the King of Kings as he must have been rich when he was alive. A person’s richness is not measured by the wealth he has, but the way he is able to share what he has with others. He was kind and generous or ‘rich by heart’. That’s why he is known as the king of kings.

II. Answer the following questions with reference to context.

1. ‘But I am restless through the mornings.’

- Who is ‘I’ here?
- What does the person say about the nights?
- What does the person do in the mornings and why?

Ans:

- ‘I’ is Baba Pir Saheb.
- The speaker chooses not to say much about nights.
- In the mornings, the speaker roams around the city.

2. ‘I will return to my abode down the lane.’

- When will the speaker return home?
- Where is the home located?
- What is the speaker known as and why?

Ans:

- The speaker will return home in the evening.
- His home is located under the peepal tree.
- Baba Pir Saheb is known as the King of Kings. A person’s richness is not measured by the wealth he has, but the way he is able to share what he has with others. He was kind and generous or ‘rich by heart’. That’s why he is known as the king of kings.
