A1. Answer these questions.

1. Describe the appearance of Liza when she meets Higgins for the first time.

Ans: Liza had a hat with three ostrich feathers, orange, sky-blue and red. She had a nearly clean apron, and the shoddy coat had been tidied a little.

2. 'So shoddy and repulsive. Be off with you. We don't want you here.'

Throw some light on Higgins' character based on the above sentences.

Ans: Higgins was judgemental and rude.

3. How much does Liza propose for the lessons and why?

Ans: Liza offered to pay eighteen pence per hour because a lady she knew learnt French at the same rate from a Frenchman and she would not accept it if Higgins charged her more than that to teach her own language.

4. Why is Mrs. Pearce anxious about the bet that Higgins and Pickering are proposing?

Ans: Mrs. Pearce was anxious because Higgins knew nothing about Liza's background. Liza wore shabby clothes and did not appear to belong to a noble family. It was as if they were picking up a pebble on the beach.

5. How does Higgins try to tempt Liza?

Ans: Higgins tried to tempt Liza by saying that the streets will be strewn with the bodies of men shooting themselves for her sake before he would be done with her.

6. What will happen at the end of six months?

Ans: At the end of six months she would be taken to meet the King in a carriage, beautifully dressed. If the Buckingham Palace found her to be a lady, she would have a present of seven-and-six pence to start life with as a lady in a shop. Otherwise she would be taken by the police to the Tower of London, where she would be kept as a warning to other presumptuous flower girls.
