WORKSHEET NO : 1	Topic: Topic: Kinds of Sentences, Punctuations and Contractions	Note : NOTEBOOK

The Sentence:

A sentence is a group of words that makes complete sense by itself.

Read the following sentences.

- A. These books
- B. I love to read these books.

In both these examples, more than one word is joined together to convey some meaning. The first group of words has some meaning, but it is not complete in itself. The second group of words conveys a particular meaning and it is complete in itself. It is called a sentence.

Note that:

A sentence:

- Begins with a capital letter, and
- Ends with a full stop(.), a question mark(?) or an exclamatory mark(!)

A sentence is made up of two parts.

1. Subject – the doer of the action in a sentence or what is being spoken about.

3. Interrogative sentence:

A sentence that asks a question is called an interrogative sentence. It begins with interrogative words like ‘What’, ‘Who’, ‘When’, ‘Where’, ‘Why’, ‘Which’ and ‘How’. In some cases in the interrogative form the auxiliary verb (helping verb) precedes the subject which is then followed by the main verb (i.e. Are you coming...?)

Interrogative sentence ends with a question mark (?).

Eg: Where do you live?

How is your new school?

Are you planning to buy this book?
