I was excited about the upcoming school drama. Mrs. Brown, asked me to help with the decorations. "Can you paint the backdrop?" she asked. "Sure, I can do that," I replied. Emma was in charge of the costumes. She brought her sewing kit to school every day. "I need to make sure everyone's costume fits perfectly," she said. Her work was always very good.

Tom was the lead actor in the drama. He practiced his lines every day. "Can you help him with the props?" Mrs. Brown asked. "Of course, I will make sure he has everything he needs," I said. I was nervous but excited. Mrs. Brown gathered us together and said, "You have all worked so hard. I am proud of each one of you. The drama was a huge success. The audience clapped and cheered for us.
