C) Read the extract and answer the questions that follow:

	The national movement brought together people from different social groups. However, these groups did not always have the same understanding of freedom. Peasants, workers, business groups and women participated in the movement for different reasons. The Congress tried to bring these different interests together, but differences sometimes created conflicts within the movement.
--	---

Q1. Why did different social groups join the national movement?

Ans: They joined because they had different grievances and hopes connected with freedom.

Q2. Why was it difficult to maintain complete unity within the movement?

Ans: Different groups had different expectations and interests.

Q3. What role did the Congress play in the national movement?

Ans: It tried to unite different groups and channel their grievances into the struggle for independence.
