What is 'Recipe Writing'?

Recipe writing is a piece of writing that provides step-by-step instructions to prepare a dish either with or without using fire.

How to write a recipe?

Use the following points to write a recipe for fireless cooking.

Name of the Recipe

Ingredients Required: Write the list of ingredients required to make your recipe with measurements. Example: 1 cup of sprouts, 1 glass of milk/yogurt, 2 tsp of honey, 4 slices of bread, a pinch of salt, a spoon of sugar, etc.

Equipment/Tools/Utensils Required: Write the utensils/equipment required to prepare the dish. Example: a medium sized bowl, a plate, a ladle, 2 teaspoons, etc.

Steps to Prepare: Write the steps clearly and in the correct order. Start with "First," and continue using words like "Next," "Then," and "Finally."

I Like This Recipe: Write why do you like this recipe.

My Dish Looks Like (optional): Draw/stick the picture of the dish.

Sample

Veggie Sandwich

Ingredients required:

- 4 slices of bread
- 2 teaspoons of butter or cheese spread
- 1 small cucumber (thinly sliced)
- 1 small tomato (thinly sliced)
- 1 small boiled potato (sliced, optional)
- a pinch of salt and pepper

Utensils required:

- a plate
- a tablespoon

Steps to prepare:

First, spread butter or cheese spread on all the bread slices. Next, place cucumber, tomato, and potato slices on one slice of bread. Then, sprinkle a little salt and pepper on the vegetables. Finally, cover with another slice of bread and serve.

I like this recipe because it looks colourful with the vegetables. It tastes yummy and crunchy. Also, it is healthy and easy to make!
