Bananas on the Tree

A monkey saw eight bananas on the tree, but they were too high. His mom asked him if he could try to get them. She said his family would really like those bananas. The monkey was sure that he wouldn't be able to grab those bananas, but he could try. The monkey climbed up four branches and fell to the ground. He did not let this upset him and he didn't give up. He got right back up and started climbing again. This time he made it to the top!
