NAME: _____ CLASS: II SEC: _____ DATE: _____

Observe the given pictures carefully and complete the story by drawing appropriate emergency services using the picture clues given below and fill in the blanks with appropriate emergency services.

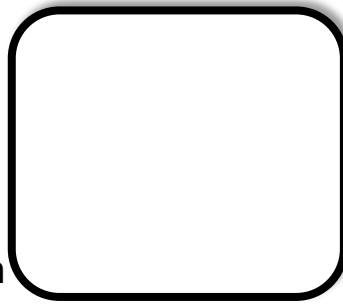

It was Diwali. Ram and Sita were excited to burst fire crackers. The sky looked colourful with brilliant sparkles that came out from the crackers. Sita enjoyed watching the night sky. Suddenly, there was a loud noise from her friend's house. It was Hari's house. A rocket cracker fell on the roof top of his house and it caught fire.

Ram informed his father to call the _____

_____.

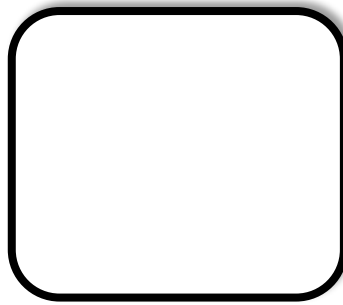

When the emergency service team came to put out fire, they saw that Hari's little sister had some burns on her hand due to the fire accident.

Hari's father immediately called an _____.

Hari felt so comforted to see his neighbours helping his family during times of need. Unluckily, Sita's parents who were helping Hari's family forgot to lock their house.

To their dismay, they found that there was a theft in their house. The new laptop of Sita's brother was missing!

So, Sita's father called the nearby _____ for help.

Fortunately, the policemen caught the thief as the thief was not far away from the location. It was truly a memorable Diwali for Ram, Sita and Hari.

HIGHER ORDER THINKING SKILLS SECTION

1. What was the reason for the fire accident in Hari's house? How could such fire accidents be avoided in future?
