Class: VII	Department: ENGLISH	Date of submission: April-2026
Worksheet No: 4	Topic: SUBJECT &amp; PREDICATE	Note: To be taken as assessment

Definition:

- ✓ The part of a sentence that performs the action is called the subject.
- ✓ The part of a sentence which is not the subject is called the predicate.
- ✓ It tells us more about the subject.

Points to remember:

- ✓ The subject does not always come at the beginning of a sentence.

For example: Down rolled the stones.

- ✓ Some sentences have more than one subject and predicate.
- ✓ To find the subject in a question or an exclamation, rewrite it.

For example:

- Has Anna baked a cake? (question)

In order to find the subject, you may write this sentence as:

- Anna has baked a cake. (statement)

We can now easily see that the subject is Anna.

EX.1. MATCH THE SUBJECT WITH THE APPROPRIATE PREDICATE:

#	Subject (numbered)	ID	Predicate (lettered)
1.	The brave firefighter	A.	leaned against the mossy stone wall.
2.	A flock of noisy parrots	B.	cheered wildly for their favorite team.
