

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

Class: VI	Department: SOCIAL SCIENCE	Subject: Political Science
Chapter 9 Worksheet No: 3	Topic: Family and Community	Year :2026-27

I	Choose the correct option: -
Q 1	What principle is important in Indian culture regarding family duties? A. Interdependence B. Dana C. Love D. Dharma
Q 2	What is the basic unit of society? A. School B. Books C. Stories D. Family
Q 3	What is a group of people living in the same area with common interests called? A. Neighbourhood B. Complexity C. Colony D. Environment
Q 4	Match the following: - <table border="1" data-bbox="295 1182 1102 1451"><thead><tr><th></th><th>Column I</th><th></th><th>Column II</th></tr></thead><tbody><tr><td>a</td><td>Halma</td><td>i</td><td>small auto-fabrication workshop.</td></tr><tr><td>b</td><td>Seva</td><td>ii</td><td>Bhill Community</td></tr><tr><td>c</td><td>Joint family</td><td>iii</td><td>Service</td></tr><tr><td>d</td><td>Kamal Parmar</td><td>iv</td><td>Several generations living together</td></tr></tbody></table> A. a-iv, b-i, c-iii, d- ii, B. a-ii, b-iii, c-iv, d- i, C. a-i, b-ii, c-iii, d- iv, D. a-ii, b-iv, c-iii, d- i,		Column I		Column II	a	Halma	i	small auto-fabrication workshop.	b	Seva	ii	Bhill Community	c	Joint family	iii	Service	d	Kamal Parmar	iv	Several generations living together
	Column I		Column II
a	Halma	i	small auto-fabrication workshop.
b	Seva	ii	Bhill Community
c	Joint family	iii	Service
d	Kamal Parmar	iv	Several generations living together
Q 5	Observe the picture and identify the correct answer: -  A. Shalini is happy with the cotton dress she got for Onam. B. Shalini was happy as she was going for a trip with her family. C. Shalini is reciting a poem to her friends. D. Shalini is happy with the silk dress she had got for Onam.

Q 6	Assertion: Shalini's family prioritizes generosity. Reason: They did not help their relatives in financial need. A. Both (A) and (R) are true, and (R) is the correct explanation of (A). B. Both (A) and (R) are true, but (R) is not the correct explanation of (A). C. (A) is true, but (R) is false. D. (A) is false, but (R) is true.
Q 7	Assertion: Families and communities are interdependent. Reason: Families need the support of neighbours, schools, and services to meet their needs A. Both (A) and (R) are true, and (R) is the correct explanation of (A). B. Both (A) and (R) are true, but (R) is not the correct explanation of (A). C. (A) is true, but (R) is false. D. (A) is false, but (R) is true.
II	Very short answer questions: -
Q 8	How are family relationships typically regarded in Indian culture? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In Indian culture, family relationships are usually regarded as very important and valuable. • Families are seen as the foundation of society, where members love, care for, respect, and support one another.
Q 9	In a family, what role do parents play? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In a family, parents play the role of caregivers, guides, and protectors. • They provide food, shelter, education, and emotional support to their children.
Q 10	Define 'Dharma'. Dharma means duty, righteousness, and the right way of living. It refers to following moral values, behaving responsibly, and performing one's duties towards family, society, and others honestly and respectfully.
Q 11	What is tyaga, and why is it significant in family relationships? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tyaga means sacrifice or giving up one's own comfort or desires for the happiness and well-being of others. • In family relationships, tyaga is important because it helps family members care for, support, and cooperate with one another.
Q 12	What is the significance of mutual support in Indian families? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mutual support is very important in Indian families and society because family members help and care for one another in times of need. • They share responsibilities, provide emotional and financial support, and stand together during difficulties.
III	Short answers: -
Q 13	In what ways do Indian families teach values like dana and tyaga to children? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Indian families teach values like dana (charity and sharing) and tyaga (sacrifice) to children through daily life and family traditions. • Parents and elders encourage children to help others, share food, clothes, and belongings with those in need, and care for family members. • Children also learn these values by observing the good actions, kindness, and sacrifices made by elders in the family.
Q 14	Explain the role of oral tradition in preserving family stories and values. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Oral tradition plays an important role in preserving family stories and values by passing them from one generation to another through storytelling, songs, and conversations. • Grandparents and elders share experiences, customs, and moral lessons with children. • This helps children learn about their family history, culture, traditions, and values such as respect, kindness, honesty, and unity. • Oral traditions also strengthen family bonds and keep cultural heritage alive.

Q 15	How does Ahimsa contribute to strengthening family bonds? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ahimsa strengthens family bonds by promoting love, peace, patience, and respect among family members. • When people speak gently, care for one another, and solve problems peacefully, it creates trust, understanding, and harmony in the family.
IV	Long Answer: -
Q 16	How do families support each other in Tenzing's story? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In Tenzing's story, family members support each other by sharing household tasks and offering emotional and practical help. • Tenzing's father, who runs a grocery store, helps with chores at home. • His grandmother provides wisdom and guidance. • His grandfather helps with homework and social work, showing how every family member plays a role in ensuring the family's smooth functioning. • This cooperation helps the family face challenges together and stay connected.
Q 17	Why did Shalini's parents buy clothes for everyone to celebrate Onam? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Shalini lives with her family in a town in Kerala in a joint family. • Her grandmother, uncle, aunt and their daughter Chinni live with them. • Shalini's uncle has just lost his job and her aunt is a homemaker. • The whole family was preparing for the festival of Onam. • Acchamma told Shalini's father that his brother was having financial difficulties, so they were not able to buy new clothes for the festival. That is why Shalini's parents bought clothes for everyone to celebrate Onam.
V	Case study: -
Q 18	Shalini's family lives in Kerala, where they practice dana and tyaga as core family values. Shalini's parents often help relatives in need, even when it requires sacrificing their own comforts. a. How do the values of dana tyaga benefit Shalini's family and her community? The family builds the values such as empathy, character, and emotional fulfillment. For the community, they provide a social safety net, helping those in need and fostering a culture of mutual support and trust. b. Why is it important for families to practice such values in today's society? In a modern world often focused on individualism and consumerism, practicing sacrifice and charity promotes social harmony and ensures that communal well-being is prioritized over personal greed.
Q19	The Bhil community in Madhya Pradesh has organized water conservation efforts to sustain their local environment. These efforts are a community responsibility, ensuring that everyone has access to clean water. a. How does the Bhil community's approach to water conservation promote social unity? By making water conservation a "community responsibility," the Bhil community ensures that access to water is not limited by wealth or status. It guarantees that everyone has access to clean water, treating it as a shared right rather than a private commodity. b. What are some benefits of community-led environmental initiatives? Sustainability: Locals have the best knowledge of their environment, leading to more effective long-term solutions. Empowerment: It builds local leadership and a sense of ownership over natural resources. Efficiency: Shared labor and resources often make these projects more cost-effective than top-down government mandates.