

LESSON: WATER

WORKSHEET

RESOURCE PERSON: MANJULA HARINARAYANAN

NAME: _____ DATE: _____ CLASS: V SEC: ____

I. Fill in the blanks.

- Free water stands at the public places to provide water to thirsty travelers is called _____.
- The supply of water to grow crops is known as _____.
- _____ is a chemical added to settle down suspended impurities in water treatment plants.
- A partly submerged vertical wheel with buckets attached to the rim is _____.
- A type of irrigation in which water from a canal is allowed to flow from a high level is _____.

II. Write the correct version of the statements given below.

- Alum kills germs present in the water.

- A rahat is a wheel with a grooved outer rim.

- A canal is a tank that has steps on all its sides.

- In furrow irrigation, crops are raised in the furrows.

III. Give reasons for the following statements.

- Our farmers are now widely using modern methods of irrigation.

- Tube wells are found in the places where underground water is too deep.

IV. Observe the given pictures and answer the questions that follow:

-
 - Name the method of irrigation.

 - Give one advantage of this method.

-
 - Identify the equipment shown.

 - What is its use?

 - What is meant by underground water?

