Revant Himatsingka

Revant Himatsingka is an Indian who helps people learn how to eat healthy food. In 2023, he made a video about a drink called Bournvita. He showed that it had too much sugar. Many people saw the video, and this helped change some food rules in India.

Revant made special charts called Sugar Boards and Oil Boards. These help students in schools learn which foods are healthy and which are not. Revant keeps working to make food better and safer for everyone.
