

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

Class: VII	Department of English	Date of submission: November, 2021
Question Bank	Topic: Who Taught Time to Fly? ----- and how it has flown ever since	Note: To be written in the notebook

I. Answer these questions in brief:

- Q 1. Why is 'Time' told to think of 'Sky' and 'High' when is taken up to 'Mount Summit'? What do these words do?
- Q 2. How do you think it is possible that someone or something could be born before a single human being was born? Do you think that these lines should be taken metaphorically?
- Q 3. When the poet says that within 'Time' there are 'worlds unseen', what do you think it means?
- Q 4. Enlist the time expressions and collocations used in the poem and use any two of those in your own sentences.

II. Answer these questions with reference to the context.

Q.1. *"There's no Time, like the Time at hand,
Time is precious, you must understand!
Save Time, keep Time, run behind Time,
It's your job to help Time find Time."*

- A. Who said this and to whom?
- B. What was the task given?
- C. Was the task successfully completed?

III. Choose the correct option to answer the following questions.

1. Which is the correct word for "A Greenish Blue Color "
- Tempest
 - Turquoise
 - Sublime
 - Turquoise

2. _____ planed this world we know.
- Who, The mighty eagle!!
 - Who, The great Owl!!
 - Aurora, a natural light
 - Time as a kid
3. 3. In the poem 'Who taught time to fly' when the poet says that within 'Time' there are 'worlds unseen', what does it mean?
- It refers to a time travel that the poet undertakes.
 - Time consumes in itself various events and happenings.
 - Time does not wait for anyone.
 - Time is one's friend and enemy simultaneously.
4. In a galaxy so, sublime means-
- a chemical reaction in space
 - an event in nature that causes fear and admiration
 - a phrase to describe the sight of a shooting star
 - A natural silver light in universe
5. Where did Time get the inspiration to fly?
- At an unknown place
 - At the top of Himalayas
 - At the Corn farm
 - On top of mount summit