

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

Class: VII	Department of English	Date of submission: October 2021
Question Bank	Topic: Face on the Wall	Note: To be written in the notebook

1. Answer these questions:

- Q.1. What was the topic of discussion at Dabney's?
- Q.2. What did the people at Dabney's ask the little man to do? What was his response?
- Q.3. What did he find on the wall of his room?
- Q.4. Why and where all did the narrator look for the man?
- Q.5. What did the narrator ask the man? What happened after the narrator read the card?
- Q.6. What happened to the face on the wall?
- Q.7. There were three things that were extraordinary about the story. What were they?

2. Answer these questions with reference to the context.

- Q.1. Truth, I always believe, is not only stranger than fiction, but also more interesting.
- A. Who said this and to whom?
- B. When did the speaker say this?
- C. What was he talking about?
- Q.2. It was then that the face began to get a firmer hold of me. It grew more and more real and remarkable.
- A. What is referred to as 'the face' here?
- B. When did the face begin to get a firmer hold of the speaker?
- C. Why did the speaker call the face 'remarkable'?

3. Choose the correct option to answer the following questions.

1. What were the people at Dabney's talking about?
- a. They were talking about true story that happened to them.
- b. They were talking about unusual events that had no natural explanation.

- c. They were talking about an old house and the place that was damp.
 - d. They were talking about a face on the wall.
2. How would you describe the man who narrated the story about the face on the wall?
- a. He was tall and had a mysterious look
 - b. He was little and had an anxious look
 - c. He was stubby and had a cheerful look
 - d. He was old and had a tired look
3. Where did the speaker rent a room?
- a. Old Dabney Street
 - b. Charring Cross
 - c. Great Ormond Street
 - d. None of the above
4. How did the speaker describe the face on the wall?
- a. The face had a curve at the nose and his forehead was remarkable.
 - b. The face looked old and had a short chin.
 - c. The face had an unwell look and had lots of facial hair.
 - d. The face had a longing stare, like he was looking at something far away.
5. What was written on the card that the man gave the speaker?
- a. Mr. Dabney, Folkstone, UK
 - b. Mr. Ormond Wall, Boulogne, France
 - c. Mr. Ormond, Pittsburgh, USA
 - d. Mr. Ormond Wall, Pittsburgh, USA
6. What was the 3rd most extraordinary thing that the speaker mentioned?
- a. The real name of the man would bear a strong influence over the place where the likeness existed.
 - b. The little man had made up the entire story and none of it was true.
 - c. It was possible for a patch on a wall in London to bear the likeness and shape of the face of a man in America.
 - d. The face on the wall disappeared at the exact time when Mr. Ormond passed away.

